Disclosure for Program Participants

I agree to inform my legal guardian(s) of the potential costs associated with enrollment in Central Washington University courses when my legal guardian(s) may be financially responsible. I also understand it is my responsibility to inform them of my progress towards high school graduation requirements (information could include: grades, school policies, fees, payments etc). In the event these charges need to be sent to collections, CWU reserves the right to contact the high school for parent name, address and phone number. Additionally, it is my responsibility to notify the University Pathways Office of any and all changes in my enrollment status, such as drops & withdrawals from classes. I also must adhere to all established CWU deadlines and policies.

Central Washington University also reserves the right to determine admission to the university/college and/or registration to specific classes. The student also understands that students in the High School Partnership program have the same rights and responsibilities as any other Central Washington University student. Demographic information is required for state and federal statistics and is requested on a voluntary basis (answers will remain confidential).

By completing this form, the student and guardian agree to pay CWU at a reduced rate of $35.00 per credit.
For example, if a student enrolls in a 5 credit class the cost would be | $35.00 x 5 = $175.00
